

From 19 September 2011, 101 is the number to call when you want to contact your local police – when it's less urgent than 999

My car has been stolen

My property
has been
vandalised

I want to talk to someone
about a crime

I suspect
someone is selling stolen
goods

I suspect drug dealing in my neighbourhood

My phone has been stolen and I need a crime
number

Remember...

999 should be used for an emergency, when a crime is happening, someone suspected of a crime is nearby, someone is injured, being threatened or in danger.
